Project name

Binstead Place Plan: Phase 1

Description of Project

When the Ryde Place Plan was approved by Full Council, councillors noted that it excluded Binstead. It is now proposed to prepare a ward place plan specifically for Binstead. Preliminary discussions have been held between the ward councillor Diana Conyers, planning clerk Chris Turvey, place plan consultant Ian Boyd and some interested residents. On 29 December 2020, Diana and Ian conducted a preliminary walkabout in the ward. They were accompanied by Dr Mary Edwards, a Binstead resident and geography lecturer at Southampton University, who is willing to help on a voluntary basis. Following the walkabout, Ian produced some notes and maps, outlining possible issues and projects. Diana and Ian have also been in touch with the Hampshire and IW Wildlife Trust (HIWWT), who have selected Binstead as one of three areas for their IW Green Spaces project (<https://www.hiwwt.org.uk/iow-greenspaces>) and would be interested in possible collaboration.

The intention is to prepare the Plan in two phases: an initial documentary study in this financial year and a public consultation in the next financial year, when hopefully it will be possible to hold public meetings. Funding is requested from the Public Realm budget for the first phase. Funding for the second phase will be sought from the new Planning Consultancy budget. This request is for £900 to fund Ian Boyd to spend 2.5 days of time.
