

EMERGENCY SCHEME OF DELEGATION – OFFICERS

BACKGROUND

In light of the current Covid-19 advice issued by the Government and the likelihood that the situation maybe ongoing, the following scheme of delegation has been written to ensure continuity of the Town Council's work and to enable business to continue 'as usual' in these uncertain times.

If a local lockdown is imposed the Council need to ensure that they are acting in accordance with Government advice whilst still continuing to function and acting for the benefit of the local community.

Staff have arranged for the phones to be diverted if needed and have set up 'Microsoft teams' to enable all staff to stay in contact and work efficiently from home.

This Scheme of Delegation can also be enacted in the event of any other significant national or regional emergency.

DELEGATION TO OFFICERS

The following matters are delegated to the Council's Officers to make decisions on behalf of the Council in the event of an emergency.

These decisions must be exercised in accordance with the law, the Council's Standing Orders and Financial Regulations and any approved policy framework and budget.

The Council may at any time, following resolution, revoke any delegated authority.

Officers may decide not to exercise delegated responsibilities and may instead make a recommendation to a Committee or the Council. Similarly, where Officers have no delegated power to make a decision, they report the matter to Committee or the Council for a decision.

All decisions made under delegated powers by officers should be in accordance with the Council's ethos, current policy, ethics and in the best interests of the Council, Ryde and its residents.
